

RSL LEGAL AID

RSL Legal Aid is a joint initiative of the League and the legal profession throughout Australia. It recognises the special needs of those who have served or are currently serving in Australia's armed forces, especially those on operational service, who may find themselves in urgent need of legal advice or guidance.

RSL Legal Aid is a referral Scheme by which all current members of the Armed Forces or the RSL may obtain "first aid" legal advice pro bono by telephone from anywhere in Australia.

In New South Wales the Legal Aid Providers are:

Law Access
(For legal advice)

Law Society's Solicitor Referral Service
(For referral to a solicitor or to request pro bono assistance)
